LOCAL NOTES.

A man answering the description of Springer, the Colton murderer has been arrested in Globe A. T.

The EPITAPH's Nacosari correspondent evidently does not take much stock in the management of that concern.

Eight or ten lives have been lost by a rock slide in the mines of Kver. Higbee and Benard, near Bueva Vista Colorado.

Primrose Hopping, a son of the wealthy William Hopping of California, is said to have died from starvation in New York.

The wholesale jewelry firm of Clapp & Davis Chicago failed last Thursday having confessed judgement for $140,000.

Canadian manufacturers are opposed to commercial union and reciprocity of the manufactures with the United States.

Chicago defeated St. Louis in the worlds championship baseball series at Indianapolis Thursday by a score of 19 to 9. The contest was a terrific slugging match.

J. M. Bracewell and deputy Sheriff Johnson of Willcox arrived in Tombstone yesterday. The EPITAPH failed to learn what disposition if any, Mr. Bracewell made of his Willcox paper.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Co., has instructed all of its agents not to sell through tickets over roads which will not join in the combination, to pay no commission to agents.

Two little sons of Mrs. G. Smith aged 4 and 6, were found drowned in a mill-race at Colfax, W. T., Friday. They had gone out in the fields to pick wild flowers and failed to return home.

The trial of B. E. Hamilton for a murder committed in Nogales several months since, will take place at Tucson on the 21st inst. The defendant will be ably defended by Cameron King and Zabriskie.

Mr. Hagen, a wealthy Sonora cattleman and owner of the Tienrenata ranch, one of the largest and best in the State of Sonora, arrived in Tombstone yesterday. Mr. Hagen makes many large cattle sales to the people of Arizona, and he is considered an honorable business man.

Secession is rampant at Willcox, nothing that smacks of Tombstone appears fair to these people. As far as the EPITAPH is concerned, we would be pleased to see this little rebellious unseasonable "province" set aside as a reservation for these malcontentants.

Robert W. Gatewood, a graduate of Annapolis and instructor in physics in Johns Hopkins University, committed suicide by shooting himself on the steamer Virginia, from Baltimore to Norfolk, Friday. His mind had been unbalanced by his study. He was a young man of great promise.

Rev. David McFawn will assume editorial charge of the Nogales Frontier at once. Bro. McFawn is a talented gentleman, and we are confident that this well known journal under his control will maintain its high standing in the community. The EPITAPH wishes Editor McFawn success.

A man has been arrested at Ft. Jones answering to the description of Pete Olsen, Mrs. Lyons' murderer. His clothes compare, but he is not ragged. He has a scar under his left eye which he claims was caused by going through the brush, but it looks as though it was caused from a burn or blow. He has a bald spot on the back of his head about the size of a quarter.

NACOSARI DOINGS.

A Workman's Ideas of the Grandeur of That Property.

NACOSARI, Son, April 17, 1887.
ED. EPITAPH:—The San Pedro and Rosario Mining Co., a New Jersey outfit and an off-shoot of the defunct New Jersey & Sonora Reduction Co., have commenced to put up a concentrator under a company they called the Mochizuma Construction Co., and they also have a store, which is also a separate affair, which the Mexicans call the "huacal," on account of the excessive prices.

The San Pedro and Rosario Mining company have two mines here, neither of which, if they were to work fifty men per day, could get out five tons of ore. The mines are not developed, and there is not three inches of solid ore in sight in either mine. The Superintendent is a New Jersey man, assisted by another New Jersey person, the boys call the "dude." I warn miners and others looking for employment not to come here. The Superintendent offered the liberal wages of $1.50 per day, Mexican money, to white men, and board themselves. The company has never had a regular pay day and men to this date, are always two or three months in getting their wages.

There is some good mines in this district, and if they were managed properly and had some capital, they would pay. The Mexicans in this district are good workers and willing to do what they are told.

The Mochizuma Reduction company have commenced to build a concentrator about six miles from the mine, it is under the charge of the New Jersey Superintendent and the "dude." What they will be able to do, at present, I do not want to say, but there is only about one hundred and fifty tons of ore at the mine, which the company claims will go sixty ozs. to the ton, but I think twenty ozs. will be more like it. I will write you later and let you know when this concern starts up.

"Walkell store," Walkell mine, was one of the best lost mines of this country, and the Mexicans say is all silver. The following are the prices of a few articles sold in this store:

Bacon, 50cts per pound; ham, 50cts per pound; soap, $1 per pound; sugar, 50cts per pound; lard, 50cts per pound; flour, 15cts per pound; overalls, (common) $2.50; overshirt, (common woolen) $5 to $7; shoes, (common) $5 to $7; and the company wants the men to buy all from the store.

WORKMAN.

Liquor Dealers in Council.

The Liquor dealers protective association of Cochise county held a meeting at the quarters of the Rescue Hose company. Nearly every Tombstone member being present. The Association was in receipt of several letters from liquor dealers in Prescott who are members of the Association of that city. They are making preparations to contest the validity of the law, and they all agree that there is a good chance to defeat the law. The Cochise county Association are in favor of assisting the Prescott association in their efforts to defeat the bill, and steps looking to that end were taken last evening at their meeting. The Tombstone members are wide awake business men and will lend valuable assistance to the Prescott liquor men in their fight. The estimated cost for prosecuting the case to a final issue is $15,000 and as there are some two hundred liquor dealers in the Territory. The cost pro rata will be about seven and one half dollars each, evidently the saloon men will inaugurate an aggressive war on the bill, and should there be any weak points in it they will be brought to light. The EPITAPH trusts that they will succeed.

A Wonderful Story.

The Los Angeles Times will to-day publish the entire Kissane history, and it will make racy reading. The account will trace the amazing career of Kissane from his boyhood, in 1843, in Cincinnati, down to 1887 in California and depict the manifold and stupendous crimes with which he has been charged and of some of which he was convicted. It will trace his connection with bold and well-organized gangs of conspirators forgers, incendiaries and swindlers; detail the operations of the gang who ran a steamer "a floating hell," on the Ohio Mississippi and Rio Grande rivers, gambling and trafficking in the blood money of the soldiers in the Mexican war and supporting vile dens at Brownsville and Matamoros. It will describe the burning of the steamer Martha Washington, by the gang at Island Sixty-five on the Mississippi river near Helena Arkansas, in the year of 1852, and the arrest trial and the conviction of the members of the gang; the arrest trial and conviction of Kissane on a charge of forgery, and his defense by Hon. George E. Pugh and Hon. George H. Fendleton in Cincinnati; the great conspiracy trial in 1853; the indictments for murder and arson; Kissane's remarkable address, after conviction, to the court in New York; his pardon, his flight to Nicaragua; his appearance in California, and the steps that have recently been taken to quash as well as to press old indictments against him. Altogether it makes one of the most strange, wonderful dramatic stories in the annals of crime, the bare facts out-rivaling the fiction of Hugo in his description of the misdeeds of Jean Valjean, or the famous story of Eugene Aram.

Narrow Minded.

Chamberlain was interrupted in a speech in Scotland by threats of "Watch yourself." He said: "Has the time come when we cannot discuss political matters in this country without being threatened with assassination? (Great cheering) This is the spirit of parties in convention in Chicago. I am sorry to know that they have any representatives in Scotland. (Cries of "They are not Scotchmen.") That convention besides being attended by delegates honestly in sympathy with Ireland, had delegates of a different stamp, apostles of outrage and murder.

PRESS COMMENTS.

The business part of the town of Kennebunk-Port, Maine, was burned Friday and the fire was still raging at last accounts.

The Delaware legislature has passed a law prohibiting the sale and manufacture of adulterated or bogus butter.

The only use they put physicians in to in the glorious climate of California is to sign certificates declaring the cause of death to be "old age."

Sale of the Nickel Plate Railway under foreclosure proceedings will take place on May 19th at Cleveland, O. The minimum bid which will be received is $16,000,000.

Journalists get more free advice than any other class of people, and it is not strange that newspapers occasionally have advice left over, which they can afford to give away.

Washington Republican: No greater outrage upon American freeman was ever committed than the refusal of the Democratic House of Representatives to take some steps for the admission of Dakota as a state.

Chicago News: A mob of armed men is blowing up with dynamite canal locks, reservoirs and other public works in Ohio. It is to be hoped that John Sherman will promptly remove his presidential boom to a place of safety.

Miss Frances Willard is to be associated with the Rev. Joe Cook in the publication of a new prohibition journal. Miss Willard is expected to furnish the intellectual motor and Mr. Cook the lung power.

It is reported that eight pretty girls are going from Wellesley College to heathen lands to become missionaries. This object should be discouraged. A number of young men would be sure to follow them for the purpose of becoming heathen.

The true boundary between Connecticut and Rhode Island was only settled last week, and Rhode Island gained from six to nine feet of land. If this goes on the weight of Rhode Island will tip over the Continent, and more seismic disturbances may be looked for.

The French have occupied Anjouan or Johanna Island, the principal of the Comore group in the Mozambique Channel. They have installed a President, and declared that they have established a protectorate over the island. The populace are friendly to the French.

Philadelphia Times: Between the organs that say the Civil Service Reform League draws a strong indictment of President Cleveland and the other organs that accuse the League of whitewashing the administration, there is no room for a faint suspicion that the League's report contains the impartial truth.

New York World: It is credible that 5,000,000 voters go to the polls mainly to secure possession of 100,000 offices, mostly petty affairs? Will the distribution of a few hundred postoffices, as a farmer throws bunnies of corn to his hungry swine alone suffice to arouse the spirit of the Democratic voters that they will turn out and elect Supervisors of their party? The idea is preposterous.

SONORA AWAKENING.

The New Method of the Government Very Unsatisfactory.

Many of the large landed estates of the Sonora Nabobs are coming to grief. The McManus Bros., bankers of Chihuahua, are surveying, by the authority of the Mexican government, all the lands in the State of Sonora. They approach a "hacienda" and demand from the proprietor his original title papers, if the unfortunate settler has no papers, as is often the case, they make a survey of the premises and turn the land over to the government, and the hostile proprietor is obliged to make terms with the government at their prices. By this, the new method, many of the large land claimants in that State have their vast possessions circumscribed to a small acreage. Don Juan Elias, our genial border neighbor, has had his boundary lines very materially lessened. He originally claimed thirty leagues, but the inexorable process of advanced Mexican civilization has reduced it to four leagues and still the good work goes on. The government is learning that the wealth of nations is not brought about by a few large greedy landlords, but by small estates and thickly settled communities, and after years experience in the affairs of government, they now propose to inaugurate a radical change of policy.

Ira Davis, a brother of W. C. Davis, of Tucson, encountered several Apaches a few days ago near his ranch, which is about forty miles below Tres Alamos. Mr. Davis opened fire upon the Indians and they sought safety in flight.

Jack Billaney and Chief Tribolet made a thorough examination of all the city fire plugs yesterday, and found all in good condition except one on the corner of Tenth and Fremont, which needs repairing.
